'Arbitral bias and Halliburton v Chubb in the UK Supreme Court
- our correspondent reports fresh from the Hearing'

Louis Flannery QC of Stephenson Harwood LLP

Contemporary issues around a case concerning 'When should an arbitrator make disclosure of circumstances which may give rise to justifiable doubts as to an arbitrator's impartiality ?'
Gulf of Mexico oil spill - "Deepwater Horizon"

Louis is head of the international arbitration group at SH. He specialises in arbitration and litigation with a particular emphasis on fraud and/or conflict of law issues. Louis is a regular speaker on arbitration and civil fraud at conferences all over the world. He has extensive experience in international commercial arbitration under the major institutional rules (LCIA, ICC, UNCITRAL, SCC, etc) and substantial High Court litigation in England. As a practising solicitor advocate (made Queen's Counsel in 2018), he has undertaken advocacy before international tribunals and courts, including the High Court and Court of Appeal. Louis has acted or advised in relation to commercial disputes for over 25 years and has been involved in many reported decisions in England. He will be representing the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators as intervening party in the Supreme Court appeal of Halliburton v Chubb in November '19
